

Earn Free Aeroplan Miles When You Move With Atlas Van Lines

Atlas Van Lines is made up of a network of pre-qualified, highly experienced, full service agents located across Canada, throughout the United States and around the globe. When you choose to move with a Canadian Atlas Van Lines agent, you can rest easy, knowing that we are the kind of organization that truly values and appreciates your business. Not only will you receive the highest quality of service available in our industry but also as a way of saying “thank you” for your business, we would like to reward you with Aeroplan® Miles.*

Aeroplan is recognized throughout the world as a leading customer loyalty program. Like Atlas, Aeroplan knows that customers deserve to be recognized for their patronage and loyalty. The Aeroplan program is intended to help you treat yourself and your family to something special. The Aeroplan program is constantly growing to provide you with more reward options to choose from. Aeroplan Miles can be used towards airline travel, car rentals, hotel stays, vacation packages and an ever-growing range of specialty gifts.

As a proud Aeroplan partner, Atlas would like to do our part in helping make your dream come true. Regardless of whether you are moving around the corner, across the country or to the other side of the world, Atlas Van Lines will award you with Aeroplan Miles. The number of Aeroplan Miles is dependent on whether your move is a local, long distance or international one. See our “Frequently Asked Questions” contained in this brochure for details on how many Aeroplan Miles you will receive for your specific type of move.

If you are not already an Aeroplan member, you can enroll online at aeroplan.com.

Ask your local Atlas representative for more information about the Atlas offer or call Atlas Van Lines’ marketing department at 1-800-267-3783 and ask for our program coordinator.

Frequently Asked Questions About Atlas' Program With Aeroplan

Q What types of moves are eligible for Aeroplan Miles?

A There are three distinct types of moves that are eligible for Aeroplan Miles: Local Moves, Long Distance Moves, and International Moves initiated by an Atlas agent based in Canada (and not in the United States).

Q What is the definition of a local move?

A A local move is usually a move that takes place within the same city but can be any move that is less than 150 miles from point of origin to point of destination, providing the move takes place within the same country.

Q How many Aeroplan Miles do I receive for a local move with an Atlas Van Lines' agent?

A You will receive 500 Aeroplan Miles for a local move.

Q How many Aeroplan Miles do I receive for a long distance move with an Atlas Van Lines agent?

A You will receive 2500 Aeroplan Miles for a long distance move.

Q What is the definition of a long distance move?

A A long distance move is any move that is in excess of 150 miles from point of origin to point of destination. A long distance move can be between cities within Canada, from Canada to the United States or from the United States to Canada. Cross border moves under 150 miles are considered long distance moves.

Q What is the definition of an international move?

A An international move is an overseas move to any country other than Canada or the continental United States.

Q How many Aeroplan Miles do I receive for an international move with an Atlas Van Lines' agent?

A You will receive 5000 Aeroplan Miles for an international move.

Q What do I have to do to ensure that I receive my entitlement of Aeroplan Miles?

A It's very simple. Once your move is completed, simply fill out the submission form that appears on the inside of this brochure and return it with a copy of your local work order for a local move; your bill of lading for a long distance move or your invoice for an international move. This paperwork can be mailed or faxed to Atlas Van Lines. If you prefer to email your submission, you must include a scanned copy of the paperwork noted above.

Q How long do I have to claim for my Aeroplan Miles?

A All submissions must be received at Atlas' office in Oakville, ON within 90 days from the date your shipment delivers to your new residence.

Q Where else can I earn additional Aeroplan Miles?

A As an Aeroplan member, you can earn Aeroplan Miles from a wide range of other partners including airline, hotel, car rental, financial and specialty partners. Visit aeroplan.com for a complete listing of Aeroplan partners.
